Statutory Authority:

Colorado Revised Statute 12-23-106 (5)(d) No holder of a master's license shall be named as the master electrician, under the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection (5), for more than one contractor, and a master named shall be actively engaged in a full-time capacity with that contracting company. The qualifying master license holder shall be required to notify the state electrical board within fifteen days after his termination as a qualifying master holder. The master license holder is responsible for all electrical work performed by the electrical contracting company. Failure to comply with a notification may lead to suspension or revocation of the master license as provided in section 12-23-118.

* Social Security Number Disclosure: Section 24-34-107(1) of the Colorado Revised Statutes requires that every application by an individual for a license issued pursuant to the authority set forth in title 12, C.R.S., by the Department of Regulatory Agencies, shall require the applicant's social security number. Disclosure of your social security number is mandatory for purposes of establishing, modifying, or enforcing child support under § 14-14-113 and § 26-13-126, C.R.S.; and locating an individual who is under an obligation to pay child support as required by § 26-13-107(3)(a)(I)(A), C.R.S. Failure to provide your social security number for these mandatory purposes will result in the denial of your licensure application. Disclosure of your social security number is voluntary for disclosure to other state regulatory agencies, testing and examination vendors, law enforcement agencies, and other private federations and associations involved in professional regulation for identification purposes only. Your social security number will not be released for any other purpose not provided for by law.
