15. On May 21, 2024, CenturyLink filed its Response of Qwest Corporation d/b/a CenturyLink QC to LETA's Motion to Compel Discovery Responses (Response).

16. On May 23, 2024, oral argument was taken on the Motion to Compel.

II. MOTION TO COMPEL

A. LETA's Motion to Compel

17. In its Motion to Compel LETA argues that the discovery requests made fall under the broad requirement that all projects reduce 911 outages. LETA does not indicate which of the proposed projects are implicated in their discovery requests.

18. LETA believes that under the broad duty to reduce 911 outages, CenturyLink should be required to provide the requested discovery.

B. CenturyLink's Response

19. CenturyLink argues that the discovery requests fail to focus on a specific project and exceed the scope of this proceeding.

C. Conclusion

20. After review of the Motion to Compel, the Response and consideration of the arguments made on May 23, 2024, the Motion to Compel is denied.

21. There is no correlation between the discovery requests made by LETA to the proposed projects in the above captioned proceeding. The discovery requests are beyond the scope of this proceeding.

22. While LETA's concerns are important, there are other proceedings where these discovery requests may be more appropriate.

III. ORDER

It is Ordered That:

1. The Motion to Compel Discovery Responses from Qwest Corporation doing business as CenturyLink QC, filed by the Larimer Emergency Telephone Authority on May 17, 2024, is denied.

2. This Decision is effective immediately.
