

Rule 4 CCR 723-4-11 Customer Deposits

723-4-11(a) A utility may require at any time from a customer or prospective customer, a cash deposit intended to guarantee payment of current bills, but only in accordance with this rule. A deposit intended to guarantee payment of current bills shall not exceed an amount equal to an estimated ninety days' bill of the customer, except in the case of a customer whose bills are payable in advance of service, in which case, the deposit shall not exceed an estimated sixty days' bill of the customer. A deposit required pursuant to this rule may be in addition to any advance, contribution, or guarantee in connection with construction of lines or facilities, as provided in the extension policy of the utility's tariffs on file with the Commission. Simple interest of 4.32 percent per annum shall be paid by the utility upon a deposit and in the manner provided in this rule, payable upon the return of the deposit, or annually at the request of the customer. Interest on a deposit shall be earned for the time such deposit is held by the utility, and shall be calculated from the date the deposit is received by the utility to the date of payment to the customer or to the date an amount equal to the deposit is credited to the customer's account. Interest payment, at the option of the utility, may be paid directly to the customer or by a credit to the customer's account. This rate shall remain in effect until permanent rules regulating gas utilities become effective or for 210 days, whichever period is less. Any gas utility receiving customer deposits shall be required to amend its respective tariffs to declare that the interest rate on customer deposits is established by the Colorado Public Utilities Commission. A copy of the letter from the Commission declaring the rate of interest to be paid shall be posted in the utility's general office and each and every payment center where customer payments are accepted. Any customer requesting to confirm the applicable rate of interest shall contact the Colorado Public Utilities Commission. The gas utility shall provide the customer with the address of the Commission.
