5. On February 25, 2014, Public Service filed a Joint Motion to Approve Stipulation and Agreement. A Stipulation and Agreement (Stipulation) signed by the Company, OCC, and Staff accompanied that filing. Climax does not oppose the Stipulation.

6. After review of the Stipulation and the record, on February 28, 2014, the ALJ sent to the Parties electronic mail addressed to the Stipulation (ALJ correspondence). The ALJ correspondence contained 19 enumerated subject areas. The ALJ requested the Signatories to present at the March 5, 2014 hearing at least one witness prepared to answer the questions posed, and to address the subject areas discussed, in the ALJ correspondence. In addition, the ALJ requested counsel to be prepared to address legal issues identified in the ALJ correspondence.

7. In that Interim Decision, the ALJ also scheduled a March 28, 2014 evidentiary hearing on the Stipulation.

8. On March 19, 2014, the Parties filed Responses to the Questions of the Administrative Law Judge Regarding Stipulation and Agreement (Responses).

9. After review of the Responses, the ALJ finds that no evidentiary hearing on the Stipulation is necessary. The ALJ will vacate the March 28, 2014 evidentiary hearing.
