

APPLICATION FOR REINSTATEMENT—PLUMBING CONTRACTOR

APPLICANT INSTRUCTIONS

Basic Requirements. In order to perform plumbing contracting in the state of Colorado, you must meet the following criteria:

- You must either be, or employ as a full-time employee, a Colorado-licensed master plumber who is the responsible party for all plumbing work the company performs. The master plumber must sign an Acknowledgement of Responsibility form, and can only be the responsible party for one company at a time.

About the Application. This application is to be completed by you and returned to the Office of Licensing. All questions on the application are mandatory, and all supporting documents must be submitted with the application. You may copy as many forms as needed; however, each form submitted must be completed in original ink or typed. Keep a copy of the completed application for your records.

Application Expiration. Your application will be kept on file for one (1) year from date of receipt in the Division. Your file and all supporting documentation will be purged if you do not submit required documents and complete your application process in one year. You will need to resubmit a new application packet and fee after that time.

License Expiration Grace Period for Applicants. All applicants who are issued a plumbing contractor registration within 120 days of the upcoming expiration date will be issued a registration with the subsequent expiration date. For example, registrations issued between May 1, 2013, and August 31, 2013, will reflect a registration expiration date of August 31, 2015. Registrations issued prior to May 1, 2013 will reflect an expiration date of August 31, 2013 and must renew in the upcoming renewal period.

- All Plumbing Contractor registrations expire on August 31 in odd-numbered years and must be renewed to continue practicing.

APPLICANT CHECKLIST

To reinstate your expired Plumbing Contractor (PC) registration:

- Submit a completed application and supporting documentation if required. Return the completed application and all supporting documentation to the Office of Licensing.
- Enclose the non-refundable application processing fee. See page 1 of the application form for current fees. Fees may be paid by a check or money order drawn in U.S. dollars on a U.S. bank and made payable to State of Colorado. All fees are non-refundable and subject to change every July 1.
- Attach the completed Acknowledgement of Responsibility, signed by the Colorado-licensed master plumber who is responsible for all plumbing work the company performs.
- If you are changing your company name, include a completed Plumbing Contractor Company Name Change Form, available online at www.dora.state.co.us/plumbing/pc/PCNamechange.pdf.

Return your completed application packet and all supporting documentation to:

Division of Registrations

Statutory Authority:

Colorado Revised Statutes 12-58-105 (3)

No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or association shall operate as a plumbing contractor until such contractor has obtained registration from the board. The board shall register a plumbing contractor upon payment of the fee as provided in section 12-58-104 and presentation of evidence that the applicant has complied with the applicable workers' compensation and unemployment compensation laws of this state. In order to act as a plumbing contractor, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization must either be, or employ full-time, a master plumber, who shall be in charge of the supervision of all plumbing work performed by such contractor. A master plumber shall be responsible for no more than one plumbing contractor at a time. The master plumber shall be required to notify the board within fifteen days after his or her termination as a master plumber for that plumbing contractor. The master plumber is responsible for all plumbing work performed by the plumbing contractor. Failure to comply with a notification may lead to suspension or revocation of the master plumber license as provided in section 12-58-110.

 Social Security Number Disclosure: Section 24-34-107(1) of the Colorado Revised Statutes requires that every application by an individual for a license issued pursuant to the authority set forth in title 12, C.R.S., by the Department of Regulatory Agencies, shall require the applicant's social security number. Disclosure of your social security number is mandatory for purposes of establishing, modifying, or enforcing child support under § 14-14-113 and § 26-13-126, C.R.S.; and locating an individual who is under an obligation to pay child support as required by § 26-13-107(3)(a)(I)(A), C.R.S. Failure to provide your social security number for these mandatory purposes will result in the denial of your licensure application. Disclosure of your social security number is voluntary for disclosure to other state regulatory agencies, testing and examination vendors, law enforcement agencies, and other private federations and associations involved in professional regulation for identification purposes only. Your social security number will not be released for any other purpose not provided for by law.
