COLORADO CIVIL RIGHTS DIVISION TO OFFER FREE TRAINING SERIES

Designed for Those Wanting Information on Applicable Civil Rights Statutes

January 24, 2008 – DENVER, Colorado – The Colorado Civil Rights Division of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies is now offering a series of training workshops addressing current topics that may affect you. Trainings will be held in the Denver Metro area and throughout Colorado.

The trainings will provide detailed overviews of the applicable rights and responsibilities under the Colorado Revised Statutes. These trainings are perfect for: Employees, Human Resource Professionals, Managers, Housing Providers, Community Organizations and the General Public.

Available topics include: Employment 101, Sexual Harassment, Fair Housing 101 and Current Topics from the Division of Real Estate.

A current schedule and online registration is available at <http://www.dora.state.co.us/civil-rights/trainingschedule.htm>. Space is limited and registration is required. If you have questions please contact Erica Gagne, Outreach and Education Specialist at 303-894-7834.

The Colorado Civil Rights Division conducts education and outreach in addition to investigating complaints of discrimination in housing, employment and public accommodations. These efforts are conducted in partnership with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

If you feel you have been a victim of discrimination please contact our Denver office at 303-894-2997, located at 1560 Broadway, Suite 1050, Denver, CO, or our Pueblo office at 719-542-1298, located at 200 West "B" Street, Pueblo, CO. You can also visit our website at <http://www.dora.state.co.us/civil-rights/index.htm>.

DORA is dedicated to preserving the integrity of the marketplace and is committed to promoting a fair and competitive business environment. Consumer protection is our mission.
