COLORADO CIVIL RIGHTS DIVISION TO CONDUCT “EMPLOYMENT 101” TRAINING IN PUEBLO

Designed for Those Wanting Information on Applicable Civil Rights Statutes

January 24, 2008 – PUEBLO, Colorado – The Colorado Civil Rights Division of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies will conduct free training for area employers and employees on February 12, 2008, to be located at the Pueblo City – County Library, 100 E Abriendo, Pueblo, CO from 1:00 – 4:00 pm.

The training will provide a detailed overview of employment rights and responsibilities for those who wish to know more about the Colorado Civil Rights statutes. Trainings are perfect for upper and middle managers, supervisors, human resources representatives, employee relations specialists, labor representatives and employees.

The Colorado Civil Rights Division will be conducting a monthly series of free trainings in the Denver metro area and throughout Colorado. Available topics include: Employment 101, Sexual Harassment, Fair Housing 101 and Current Topics from the Division of Real Estate.

A current schedule and online registration is available at <http://www.dora.state.co.us/civil-rights/trainingschedule.htm>. Space is limited and registration is required. If you have questions please contact Erica Gagne, Outreach and Education Specialist at 303-894-7834.

The Colorado Civil Rights Division conducts education and outreach in addition to investigating complaints of discrimination in housing, employment and public accommodations. These efforts are conducted in partnership with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

If you feel you have been the victim of discrimination please contact our Pueblo office at 719-542-1298, located at 200 West “B” Street, Pueblo, CO, or our Denver office at 303-894-2997, located at 1560 Broadway, Suite 1050, Denver, CO. You can also visit our website at <http://www.dora.state.co.us/civil-rights/index.htm>.
