Hosting Online Public Information Session

New legislation is impacting a number of professions across the state with changes in licensing and registration requirements, responsibilities and deadlines. Affected professions include addiction counselors, advanced practice nurses, electricians, licensed professional counselors, marriage and family therapists, social workers, and professions impacted by the Skolnik Transparency Act. The Division of Registrations, part of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies, is hosting important informational online sessions to address these changes.

Thursday, December 9, 2010

Representatives from these professions and any other interested parties are strongly encouraged to attend the informational meeting to learn about new registration and licensing rules, educational requirements and important deadlines and/or to gather the printed materials.

Sessions specific to each profession will allow division staff to answer questions, distribute support materials and provide guidance on what is now required to do business in good standing in Colorado.

Questions may be submitted to Division staff at reglegislativeoutreach@dora.state.co.us.
Session Materials may be accessed online:
