DORA's Colorado Civil Rights Division Opens Regional Office on West Slope

The Western Regional Office of the Colorado Civil Rights Division, a Division of the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA), is now open on a part-time basis and is accepting civil rights complaints in the areas of employment, housing and public accommodation.

The Western Regional Office will serve the Grand Junction area and surrounding communities of the West Slope. Director Steven Chavez will appoint full-time staff by the end of July, but until that time, complainants are encouraged to call the office for an appointment.
