DORA's Division of Registrations Hosting Public Information Session

New legislation is impacting a number of professions across the state with changes in licensing and registration requirements, responsibilities and deadlines. Affected professions include athlete agents, accountants, architects, massage therapists, physicians, occupational therapists, pharmacists and anyone prescribing controlled substances. The Division of Registrations, part of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies, is hosting important informational sessions to address these changes.

When: Tuesday, December 2, 2008

Morning Session: 11:00 a.m.
Athlete Agents
Massage Therapists
Physicians

Afternoon Session: 2:30 p.m.
Accountants
Architects
Occupational Therapists
Pharmacists/Prescribers of Controlled Substances

Location: Front Range Community College – Larimer Campus
Harmony Library -- 4616 South Shields, Fort Collins, Colorado

Register for these sessions via: reglegislativeoutreach@dora.state.co.us

Representatives from these professions and any other interested parties are strongly encouraged to attend the informational meeting to learn about new registration and licensing rules, educational requirements and important deadlines.

The meeting will open with a brief overview of the division's role in licensing and regulating more than 47 professions, occupations and entities, tools and resources available for professionals, and the DORA mission of consumer protection through promotion of a fair and competitive business environment.

Participants may then attend break-out sessions specific to each profession so division staff can answer questions, distribute support materials and provide guidance on what is now required to do business in good standing in Colorado.

Register for these sessions, submit questions for division staff, and sign up for email notifications at reglegislativeoutreach@dora.state.co.us.

Specific impacts include:

- Athlete agents - those recruiting or representing student athletes – must hold a certificate of registration by Jan. 1, 2009.
- Accountants based outside Colorado who provide services inside the state can now practice without obtaining a state license or temporary practice permit, effective Aug. 5, 2008.
- Architects licensed to practice in Colorado must meet new continuing education requirements designed to ensure retention of certain educational materials on health, safety and welfare in order to renew their license by July 31, 2009.
- Occupational therapists must hold a certificate of registration by Jan. 1, 2009.
- Massage therapists must hold a certificate of registration by April 1, 2009.
- Physicians must meet new public profile disclosure requirements relating to licenses, board certifications, affiliations, business ownership interests, disciplinary actions, and other information, by May 31, 2009.
- Pharmacists or anyone prescribing controlled substances (physicians, nurses with prescriptive authority, dentists, optometrists, podiatrists, veterinarians, physicians assistants) may register to access the Electronic Prescription Drug Monitoring program, designed to provide objective information to assist prescribers and pharmacists in providing appropriate treatment to patients.

Any interested party may provide input, ask questions or contact the Division of Registrations directly via email: reglegislativeoutreach@dora.state.co.us.

Future session will be held in Grand Junction in the coming weeks (date to be announced). Please see www.dora.state.co.us/registrations/ for details and updates.
