For Immediate Release – June 3, 2010

ERIN TOLL RESIGNS FROM DORA's DIVISION OF REAL ESTATE

DENVER – Erin Toll has submitted her resignation as Director of the Division of Real Estate, Department of Regulatory Agencies, effective close of business May 31, 2010. Barbara Kelley, Executive Director, has accepted Ms. Toll's resignation. Ms. Kelley expresses her appreciation for the years of service that Ms. Toll has provided to the state as a passionate consumer advocate. Ms. Toll, in her letter of resignation, has expressed her gratitude to the exceptional staff at the Division of Real Estate, representatives of the Attorney General's office that have provided counseling on legal matters and to industry representatives serving on boards and task forces.

Ms. Toll's future plan is to enter the private sector as a real estate broker where she will represent clients with the same type of energy and zeal that was shown in her public sector work.
