2804. – 2809. [Reserved].*Inmate Communication Services*Basis, Purpose, and Statutory Authority

The basis and purpose of these rules is to prescribe the process and requirements for reporting and disclosures by inmate communication services (ICS) providers.

The statutory authority for the promulgation of these rules is found at § 17-42-103, C.R.S.

2810. Applicability.

Rules 2810 through 2812 are applicable to inmate communication services providers, as defined in rule 2811.

2811. Definitions.

- (a) “Call” means video calling or voice-only calling between an incarcerated individual and another person and does not include electronic mail or messaging services.
- (b) “Commissions” means any form of monetary payment, thing of value, in-kind payment, gift, exchange of services or goods, fee other than for direct cost recovery, or technology allowance paid to a correctional facility or other government entity by an ICS provider.
- (c) “Correctional facility” means any building, structure, enclosure, institution, or place, whether permanent or temporary, fixed or mobile, where persons are or may be lawfully held in custody or confined and that is operated by a city, county, city and county, state government, or private entity, including but not limited to a jail or prison.
- (d) “Inmate communication services (ICS)” or “Penal communications services” means communications services, including but not limited to telephone, video, or electronic mail or messaging services provided to a correctional facility for use by end users.
- (e) “Inmate communication services (ICS) provider” or “Penal communications services provider” means a person or company that provides penal communications services or the means to access penal communications services, regardless of the technology used to provide the services. A person or company that provides one type of communications service but not others is also an inmate communication services provider.

2812. Inmate Communication Services Provider Reporting and Testing Requirements

- (a) Within 14 days after the end of each quarter, each ICS provider must submit the following records and data to the Commission for each correctional facility to which it provides ICS:
- (I) a copy of the existing contract between the ICS provider and the government entity to provide ICS to persons in custody in a correctional facility, unless this contract was provided in a previous quarterly report and is unchanged;
  - (II) the total number of video calls and total number of voice calls made from the correctional facility using the service;
  - (III) the total number of video call minutes and total number of voice call minutes made from the correctional facility using the service;
  - (IV) the total gross revenue collected by the ICS provider for providing the services, including revenue for voice calls, video calls, e-mail, and other electronic messaging, for both intrastate and interstate communications, broken out or combined as directed by Commission staff;
  - (V) a summary of all commissions paid to the correctional facility or any other government entity for all ICS provided by the ICS provider;
  - (VI) a copy of the inmate communications service provider's unclaimed funds policy, unless a copy of this policy was provided in a previous quarterly report and is unchanged;
  - (VII) a list of the rates charged by the inmate communications provider to persons in custody making calls to persons not in custody, regardless of whether those rates are paid directly by the person in custody or by the correctional facility on the person's behalf, including any rates charged for:
    - (A) the first minute of an in-state call;
    - (B) minutes subsequent to the first minute of an in-state call;
    - (C) the first minute of an out-of-state call; and
    - (D) minutes subsequent to the first minute for an out-of-state call;
  - (VIII) a list of the fees charged to persons in custody making telephone calls to persons not in custody, including fees charged for:
    - (A) initiating a call;
    - (B) depositing money into the incarcerated person's account for ICS;
    - (C) opening, maintaining, funding, or closing an account with an ICS provider;
    - (D) receiving a refund from an ICS provider;

- (E) receiving a paper bill from an ICS provider;
  - (F) making payments to the ICS provider through a third-party company; and
  - (G) other information as may be requested by Commission staff regarding the fee and rate structure of the services provided by the ICS provider; and
- (IX) the total number of complaints related to video quality.
- (b) Commission staff may provide an online form to facilitate the quarterly reporting required in paragraph (a).
- (c) Starting on January 1, 2022, rate caps established by the federal communications commission apply to all in-state debit, prepaid, and collect calls to or from a correctional facility.
- (d) ICS providers shall cooperate, as necessary, with biannual trial tests conducted by Commission staff and correctional facilities on a statistically valid sample of communications services to and from correctional facilities served by the ICS provider, including voice calls, at a minimum, but may also include video calls.
- (I) Tests will include trial voice calls to staff phone numbers not already in the provider's system.
  - (II) Tests will assess and monitor the costs and quality of calls, including how the ICS provider is charging and addressing consumer complaints regarding poor quality calls, including dropped calls.
  - (III) Tests will generally be conducted remotely.
- (e) ICS providers shall include the following language on their website: "The Public Utilities Commission (PUC) gives consumers the opportunity to file informal complaints about problems with the communications services that the PUC regulates. Complaints can be filed through <https://puc.colorado.gov/inmate-communication-services> or <https://puc.colorado.gov>".
- (I) Both "<https://puc.colorado.gov>" and "<https://puc.colorado.gov/inmate-communication-services>" in the statement shall be hyperlinked to allow visitors to the website to directly access the websites.
  - (II) The language must be posted on the homepage or customer service page of the ICS provider's website. If posted to the customer service page, this page must be accessible with a single click from the homepage. The language must be displayed in an easy-to-read font, font size, and color.
  - (III) Informal complaints received by Commission staff shall be handled in accordance with rule 1301.

2813. – 2819. [Reserved].
