PROCEEDING NO. 25F-0278TO

CHRISTOPHER J. MCNOLDY,

COMPLAINANT,

V.

1ST RESPONSE AUTO & TRUCK REPAIR LLC DOING BUSINESS AS JH MOUNTAIN
AUTO SERVICES AND KAMIL PETRIK AND GINA ANZUETO,

RESPONDENT.

INTERIM DECISION RELATED TO RESCHEDULING HEARING

Issued Date: October 7, 2025

I. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On June 26, 2025, Complainant Christopher J. McNoldy (“Complainant”) initiated this matter by filing the above-captioned Complaint with the Colorado Public Utilities Commission (“Commission”) against 1st Response Auto & Truck Repair LLC, doing business as JH Mountain Auto Services, and its Registered Agents Kamil Petrik and Gina Anzueto (“Respondent”).

2. On July 18, 2025, Respondent filed its Response to Formal Complaint.

3. On July 28, 2025, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) issued Decision No. R25-0549-I in which the ALJ set this matter for hearing for October 7, 2025, at 11:00 a.m.

4. On October 7, 2025, at approximately 10:00 a.m., the ALJ became aware through informal communication from Commission Staff that Complainant is unable to appear to the scheduled hearing because of extraordinary circumstances.

5. The ALJ will reschedule the October 7, 2025 hearing and will require the Complainant to file a document in the Commission’s E-Filings system by 5:00 p.m. on October 21, 2025, that states the first date he will be available to participate in a fully remote evidentiary hearing. The ALJ will then issue a decision rescheduling the hearing to occur on or after the date the Complainant identifies.

6. If Complainant does not provide the required information by October 21, 2025, as described in the paragraph above, the ALJ may issue a decision adverse to Complainant’s interests.

II. ORDER

A. It Is Ordered That:

1. The October 7, 2025 hearing in this matter will be rescheduled by a separate decision. No hearing will be held on October 7, 2025.

2. Consistent with the above discussion, Complainant Christopher J. McNoldy must file a document in the Commission’s E-Filings system by 5:00 p.m. on October 21, 2025, wherein he must state the first date he will be able to participate in a rescheduled fully remote evidentiary hearing on the merits of the Complaint.

3. This Decision is effective immediately.
