

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION FOR THE STATE OF COLORADO

DOCKET NUMBER: 10G-881EC

STATE OF COLORADO
PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION
2011 JAN 21 PM 3:52

IN THE MATTER OF DENVER LIMO INC

Denver Limo Inc 16628 E 2ND Ave Aurora CO 80011

RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE PURSUANT TO RULE 4 CCR 723-1-120(b)(II)

Denver Limo Inc hereby responds to the Interim Order of ALD, and states the following in support thereof:

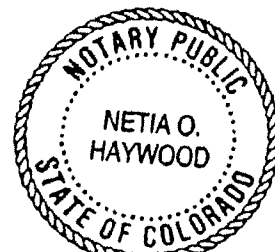

1. Respondent is a closely-held entity, with no more than three owners pursuant to section 13-1127(1)(a) C.R.S.
2. Respondent hereby certifies that requirements of section 13-1-127(2) are met and (a). the amount of controversy does not exceed $10,000 and (b) the respondent will be represented by an officer of a closely-held entity and officer will provide the Commission with satisfactory evidence to the Commission of the officer's authority to represent the closely-held entity
3. Further Responded would like to show that CPAN was not contested, and inner office incident caused Respondents failure to pay within the set time period
4. Respondent intended to pay one-half of the assessment set out in the CPAN within ten days to resolve this matter and constitute admission of liability.
5. Responded understands and agrees that hearing date needs to be set and would like to explain his case as incident was beyond Responders control that caused this matter to become an Interim Order
6. Respondents also states that Vladislav Litvinenko is an operations officer of Respondent and he will be representing the interests of Respondent at the hearing

Respectfully submitted

Denver Limo Inc

Igor Davidson -owner

My Comm. Exp. 07/27/2014

Netia O. Haywood
1/21/2011