STATEMENT, FINDINGS, AND CONCLUSIONS

BY THE COMMISSION:

1. On December 1, 1992, Kangaroo Express of Colorado Springs, Inc., filed an application (Docket No. 92A-631BY-Extension-TA) for temporary authority to extend operations under Contract Carrier Permit No. B-9624 for the transportation of general commodities between the facilities of NCR Corporation in the County of El Paso, State of Colorado, and between said facilities, on the one hand, and on the other hand, the facilities of NCR Corporation in the County of Larimer, State of Colorado, on the other hand. This application is restricted as follows: (1) to the transportation of packages weighing 100 pounds or less; (2) to the transportation of aggregate shipments from one place of origin to one place of destination in any one day of 350 pounds or less; (3) to the delivery of shipments within four hours after the request for service; and (4) to providing service for only NCR Corporation.

2. The Commission gave notice of the application on December 7, 1992.

3. By § 40-6-120, C.R.S., the application for temporary authority is under consideration for a Commission order.

4. Section 40-6-120(1), C.R.S., authorizes the Commission to grant temporary authority when there appears to be ". . . an immediate and urgent need to any point or within a territory having no carrier service capable of meeting such need."

5. The support filed on behalf of this application indicates that there is an immediate and urgent need for the service requested.

6. The Commission finds due to the facts stated in paragraph 5 above, there is an immediate and urgent need for additional transportation services. The Commission will grant the application.

7. The Applicant has adequate equipment and financial resources to begin immediate service within the scope of the authority sought and is willing, ready, and able to operate under all Commission rules and regulations governing carriers by motor vehicle.

8. This application for temporary authority is in the public interest and should be granted.

9. The Applicant is advised that the granting of an temporary authority makes no presumption that permanent authority will be granted.

THEREFORE THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. Kangaroo Express of Colorado Springs, Inc. is granted temporary authority to extend operations under Contract Carrier Permit No. B-9624 for a period of 180 days commencing from the mailed date of this order, with authority as set forth in the attached Appendix.

2. Kangaroo Express of Colorado Springs, Inc. shall not commence operation until all requirements have been met and notice in writing has been received from the Commission that the Applicant is in compliance and may begin service. If the Applicant does not comply with the requirements of this ordering paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of this Order, ordering paragraph 1 above, which grants authority to the Applicant, shall be void, and the authority granted shall then be void.

3. The 20-day time period provided by § 40-6-114(1), C.R.S., to file an application for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration shall begin on the first day after the Commission mails or serves this decision.

4. This Order is effective on its date of mailing.

ADOPTED IN OPEN MEETING December 16, 1992.
