The Application commenced this proceeding.

2. On February 3, 2004, Applicants also filed Supplemental Material in Support of the Application.

3. On February 4, 2004, the Commission gave public notice of the Application. See Notice of Application Filed, dated February 4, 2004 (Notice). In that Notice, the Commission established an intervention period and a procedural schedule. By this Order, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) will vacate the procedural schedule set out in the Notice.

The parties should be prepared to discuss these matters at the prehearing conference: (a) date by which Applicants will file their direct testimony and exhibits; (b) date by which Intervenor will file its answer testimony and exhibits; (c) date by which Applicants will file their rebuttal testimony and exhibits; (d) date(s) by which each party will file its corrected testimony and exhibits; (e) date by which each party will file its prehearing motions;¹ (f) whether a final prehearing conference is necessary and, if it is, date for that prehearing conference; (g) date by which the parties will file any stipulation reached;² (h) hearing dates; and (i) whether there should be post-hearing statements of position and, if so, the date for post-hearing statements of position and whether responses should be permitted. Further, the parties should review, and be prepared to discuss to the extent relevant, the matters contained in Rule 4 CCR 723-1-79(b)(5). Parties may raise any additional issues.

¹ This date should be at least 10 days before the final prehearing conference or, if there is no final prehearing conference, 14 days before the hearing.

² This date should be at least seven calendar days before the first day of hearing.

8. In considering proposed dates, parties should keep in mind that the Commission deemed the Application complete as of March 22, 2004. Any procedural schedule must take into consideration, and allow time for, preparation of a recommended decision, preparation of exceptions to the recommended decision and response to exceptions, and preparation of a Commission decision on exceptions,³ all of which should occur by October 18, 2004.

9. In this proceeding, absent waiver of the provisions of § 40-6-9.5, C.R.S., the hearing must be held no later than the week of July 26, 2004. The parties are advised that the ALJ is unavailable on July 13, 14, 19, and 20, 2004.
