

Decision No. R14-1491-I

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF COLORADO

PROCEEDING NO. 14F-0784TO

CHARLES SNYDER,

COMPLAINANT,

V.

RANDY'S HIGH COUNTRY TOWING, INC.,

RESPONDENT.

INTERIM DECISION OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
PAUL C. GOMEZ
REQUIRING FILING FROM COMPLAINANT
REGARDING INTENT TO PROSECUTE COMPLAINT

Mailed Date: December 17, 2014

I. STATEMENT

1. On November 13, 2014, Interim Decision No. R14-1366-I was issued which denied Complainant Mr. Charles Snyder's request for reassignment of judicial officer, and which also required Complainant to indicate through a pleading his intent to prosecute the Formal Complaint, as well as indicate a date specific which was amenable to Complainant to hold an evidentiary hearing. This Complaint proceeding was held in abeyance pending Complainant's filing.

2. One month has passed since that Interim Decision was issued and Complainant has failed to file a pleading indicate a preferred date to hold an evidentiary hearing.

3. The Complainant is reminded that as the party bringing the Formal Complaint, he bears the responsibility to go forward with, and prosecute the Complaint. Complainant also bears the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

4. As of the date of this Interim Decision, this matter remains in abeyance pending a filing from Complainant as to his intent. In order to move this matter forward, Complainant will be required to make a filing regarding his intentions no later than January 2, 2015.

5. Complainant is on notice that failure to make such a compliance filing by the date specified may result in dismissal of the Formal Complaint.

II. ORDER

A. It Is Ordered That:

1. Complainant, Mr. Charles Snyder shall make a compliance filing by the close of business on January 2, 2015 indicating whether he intends to move his Formal Complaint forward, and if so, indicating a preferred date for an evidentiary hearing.

2. An evidentiary hearing in this proceeding will be scheduled at such time as Complainant files a pleading indicating his preferred hearing date.

3. Complainant, Mr. Charles Snyder is on notice that failure to make such a compliance filing by the close of business on January 2, 2015 may result in dismissal of his Formal Complaint.

4. This Decision shall be effective immediately.
