II. INTERVENTIONS

7. Finding good cause, and in the absence of any objection from Applicant, the ALJ finds that all intervenors have established its standing as an intervenor in accordance with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

A. Legal Representation

8. Under Rule 1201(b) 4 CCR 723-1, a party in an adjudicatory proceeding before Commission shall represented the be by an attorney unless the party is an individual appearing for the sole purpose of representing her/his own interests or for purposes of representing the interests of a closely held entity pursuant to § 13-1-127, C.R.S. The Commission has emphasized that this requirement is mandatory and has found that if a party does not meet the criteria of this rule a non-attorney may not represent a party in such a proceeding. See, e.g., Decisions No. C05-1018, Proceeding No. 04A-524W (issued August 30, 2005); No. C04-1119, Proceeding No. 04G-101CP (issued September 28, 2004); and No. C04-0884, Proceeding No 04G-101CP (issued August 2, 2004).

- 9. Midnight Riders in its Application identified Treavis Brown as the owner of Midnight Riders, stated the amount in controversy does not exceed $15,000 and that Midnight Riders is a closely held entity. Mr. Brown may represent the interests of Midnight Riders in this proceeding.
- 10. Explorer in its filing of April 15, 2024, identified Mr. Lysenko as the president and owner of Explorer, stated the amount in controversy does not exceed $15,000 and that Explorer is a closely held entity. Mr. Lysenko may represent the interests of Explorer in this proceeding.
- 11. A party allowed to proceed pro se (that is, without an attorney) in this matter, is advised, and is on notice, that its representative will be bound by the same procedural and evidentiary rules as an attorney.

III. REMOTE PREHEARING CONFERENCE

- 12. Given the procedural posture of the case, it is appropriate to hold a prehearing conference to address several issues. The parties to this proceeding should be prepared to discuss all procedural and substantive issues, including, but not limited to, deadlines for witness lists, exhibits, and a date(s) for a hearing on the Application.
- 13. Participants will appear at the prehearing conference from remote locations by videoconference and may not appear in person for the prehearing conference. The remote prehearing conference will be held using the web-hosted service, Zoom. Attachment A hereto includes important technical information and requirements to facilitate holding the prehearing conference remotely. All those participating in the hearing must carefully review and follow all requirements in this Decision and Attachment A.

Decision No. R24-0343-I PROCEEDING NO. 24A-0123CP

14. To minimize the potential that the videoconference hearing may be disrupted by non-participants, the link and meeting ID or access code to attend the hearing will be provided to the participants by email before the hearing, and the participants will be prohibited from distributing that information to anyone not participating in the hearing. Parties will receive an email with information needed to join the hearing at the email addresses on file with the Commission for this Proceeding. As such, it is important that all parties ensure that the Commission has the correct email address for them.

15. Parties are on notice that failure to appear at the prehearing conference may result in dismissal of the Application without prejudice or dismissing an intervention. The ALJ will deem any party's failure to appear at the prehearing conference to be a waiver of any objection to the rulings made during the prehearing conference.

16. A prehearing conference in this matter will be scheduled as ordered.
